SUNPOWER®

by Milholland Electric

SIRC FAMILY OF COMPANIES

Solar Integrated Roofing Corporation (SIRC) is an integrated solar and roofing installation company specializing in both commercial and residential properties in Southern California.

Their family of brands includes SunPower by Milholland Electric, a premier solar, energy storage and roofing company serving San Diego homeowners since 1990. SunPower by Milholland Electric is one of only 35 SunPower Master Dealers in the nation, is a Tesla Certified Powerwall Installer, has completed over 7,000 solar projects and recently expanded to serve customers in Orange County.

SIRC also includes McKay Roofing, a leading commercial and residential roofing contractor since 1981. McKay Roofing has roofed thousands of homes, apartments, condos, and landmark buildings throughout San Diego, and performed repairs on countless others. Their legacy throughout Southern California remains unmatched for craftsmanship, ethics, and customer satisfaction.

Additionally, SIRC includes Secure Roofing and Solar, a top solar and roofing contractor serving San Diego communities for nearly three decades. Secure, an Angie's List Super Award winner, provides homeowners with experience and expertise in a wide variety of roofing and renewable energy solutions, as well as financing options.

Montross Companies, a full-service roofing, decking and waterproofing company serving customers throughout Southern California, is also part of the SIRC family. The company specializes in complete roofing, decking, and subgrade systems, as well as emergency leak detection service and prevention.

SunPower by Milholland Electric, McKay Roofing, Montross and Secure are all long-standing, family-owned Southern California businesses. As part of SIRC, they offer a combined 110 years serving San Diego and Orange County communities and decades of experience in roofing, electrical and solar energy.

We look forward to working with you through the SIRC Family of Companies – quality service, innovative and award-winning expertise that you can count on, all “under one roof!”
